10 PLACES THAT YOU MUST VISIT IN COLOMBIA

MEDELLÍN

This city was dubbed the most dangerous city in the world in the early 1990s, but a quarter of a century later, it has earned a reputation for something entirely different: innovation.

CARTAGENA

This is the crown jewel of Colombia's Caribbean coast and one of the best-preserved colonial destinations in the Americas.

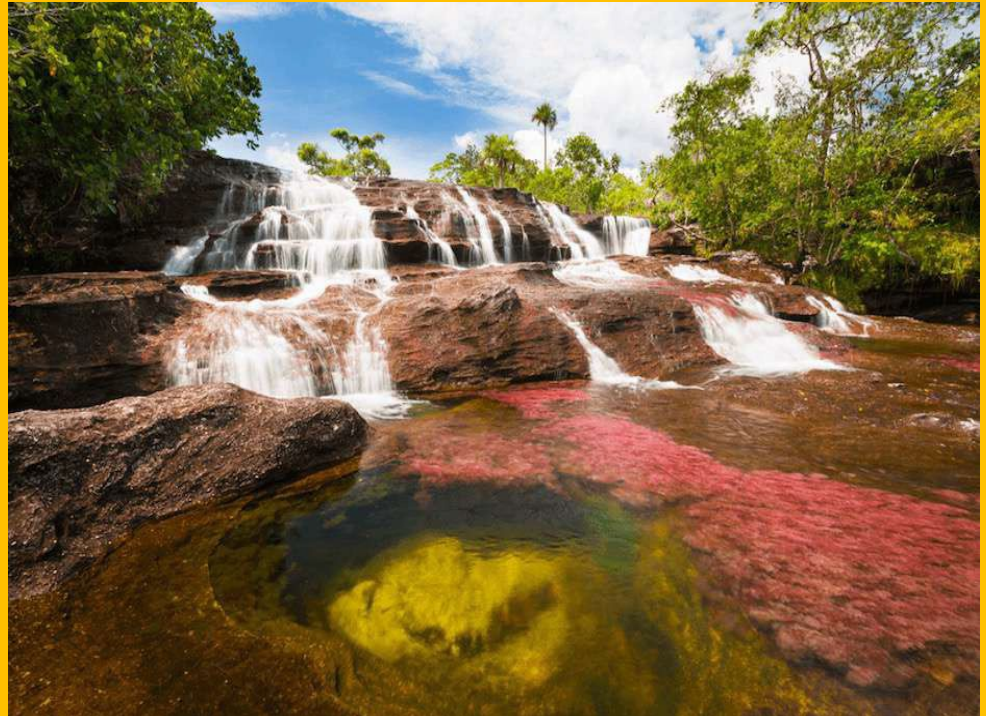

TAYRONA NATIONAL PARK

You will find some of the best beaches in Colombia within the protected Tayrona National Natural Park, which is known for its palm-shaded coves and crystal-clear coastal lagoons

CAÑO CRISTALES

It is considered one of the most beautiful rivers in the world. It was selected as the First Natural Wonder in Colombia. It is really a place where magic realism lives.

TATACOA DESERT

It is the second largest dry area in Colombia after the desert of La Guajira, is one of Colombia's most attractive natural landscapes.

PUNTA GALLINAS

It is located at extreme north of the country and the South American continent. Punta Gallinas offers spectacular landscapes passing through deserts, beaches, bays with pink flamingos and giant dunes of golden sand.

LOST CITY

Colombia's most popular hike is undoubtedly the four-day, 44-kilometer trek to Ciudad Perdida, a lost city hidden deep in the Sierra Nevada de Santa Marta mountains.

VILLA DE LEYVA

Villa de Leyva is considered one of the most beautiful towns in Colombia. It's best known for being home to the biggest Spanish Square in the country.

COCORA VALLEY

The Cocora Valley (Spanish: Valle de Cocora) is a valley in the Quindío Department of Colombia. It is located in the Central Cordillera of the Andean mountains.

UTRÍA NATIONAL PARK

One of the most incredible experiences for ecotourism lovers is the possibility of seeing humpback whales during their passage through the warm waters of the Colombian Pacific.
